MSA KARTING CIRCULAR 2/2010

156795/144

GCR 127 iii) a) and Article 15 i) d) of the 2010 MSA Karting Regulations have reference.

In terms of the above, karters wishing to take out competition licences through MSA are required to be members of an MSA-affiliated karting club.

This circular, issued under the provisions of GCR 67, serves to confirm that the provisions of GCR 127 iii) a) and Article 15 i) d) of the 2010 MSA Karting Regulations will not apply to competitors wishing to take part in the karting event scheduled to be held at the Idube kart circuit in KZN this coming weekend (06/07th February 2010).

Competitors applying to MSA for competition licences to take part in this particular event will therefore not need to be members of an MSA-affiliated club in order to be issued with such licences. However, following this coming weekend's event licences issued to non club members will only be validated for use for the rest of the 2010 racing season by the competitor concerned joining an MSA-affiliated karting club.
